

Wellness Recovery Action Planning (WRAP) – A structured system for self-monitoring uncomfortable and distressing symptoms and, through planned responses, reducing or removing those symptoms. It includes plans for responses from others when symptoms prevent an individual from making decisions, caring for self and ensuring safety.